

List of speakers & biographies

Pierre-Louis LEMPEREUR is the Chairman of the Council Working Party on Disarmament and Space and Counsellor in the Non-Proliferation and Disarmament Department of the European Union External Action Service (EEAS), Brussels, Belgium. Prior to his current position, he was Counsellor in the Office of the Personal Representative of the EU High Representative for Non-Proliferation Issues at the Council of the European Union. Mr. Lempereur previously served as First Secretary at the Office of the Council of the European Union to the United Nations, as well as advisory positions such as Assistant European Correspondent at the European Commission and Adviser to the Delegation of the European Commission. Mr. Lempereur holds degrees from the College of Europe, the Ruprecht-Karls-Universität, the Free University of Brussels, the Institut d'Etudes Politiques, the University of California, Los Angeles, and Georgetown University.

Andrew PELKEY is a Political-Military Officer at the U.S. Mission to the EU. His portfolio covers European defense issues, emerging security threats, space security, and nonproliferation. Mr. Pelkey joined the State Department in 2010 after working for several years at a strategic communications firm in Washington, DC. Mr. Pelkey graduated with high honors from Tufts University, where he received a degree in Political Science with a concentration International Political Economy.

Michiko MIYANO is First Secretary at the Mission of Japan to the European Union. Her portfolio covers EU security issues, disarmament, CSDP, US, Russia and Central Asia. Prior to her current position, she was Principal Deputy Director at the Central and South Eastern Europe Division in the European Affairs Bureau of the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Ms. Miyano holds a Bachelor of Laws from the Hitotsubashi University in Tokyo and an LLM from the University of Edinburgh she also attended the MA War studies course at the Kings College of London.

Jonathon LANE is Third Secretary at the Australian Mission to the EU. On the draft International code of conduct, Mr Lane works closely with Sean Kelly, Director Defence and Strategic Policy Section, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, based in Canberra. Mr Lane joined the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade in 2007. He covers a range of political and security issues, including non-proliferation and space policy.

Oleg KOVALENKO is Counselor of the Permanent mission of the Russian Federation to the European Union. His current field of responsibilities includes maintaining contacts with EU partners on issues related to arms control, non-proliferation and outer space. As representative of the Department for Security Affairs and Disarmament of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia he commands expertise in the areas of strategic stability, WMD, conventional arms and other issues related to international security. Mr. Kovalenko has an academic degree of political scientist. He joined the Department in 2003 and before his consequent posting in Brussels he had acquired nonproliferation experience while working as Second secretary of the Russian Embassy in Washington.

Gérard BRACHET is Consultant in space policy, Vice-President of the International Astronautical Federation (IAF), Chairman of its Committee on Liaison with International Organizations and Developing Nations (CLIODN), President of the Air and Space Academy (Académie de l'Air et de l'Espace) and Member of the International Academy of Astronautics. He holds an engineering degree from the Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Aéronautique (1967) and a Master of Sciences in Aeronautics and Astronautics from the University of Washington (1968).

Brachet is the originator of the initiative "Long Term Sustainability of Outer Space Activities" at UN COPUOS. He was designated by the French Government as the French expert on the "Group of Governmental Experts on Transparency and Confidence Building Measures in Outer Space" set up by the UN Secretary General (2012-2013). During the 2nd Semester of 2008, he was an adviser to the French Presidency on the development of an EU Draft Code of Conduct for outer space activities.

Agnieszka LUKASZCZYK is European Program Manager for Secure World Foundation. With experience in the international space policy arena, at an executive level, Lukaszczyk has become known throughout the space industry as a thought leader and collaborative facilitator. Currently, Lukaszczyk is based in Brussels, Belgium where she is spearheading and actively facilitating international dialogue regarding space policy. Her work involves working with the European institutions on space policy matters. In addition Agnieszka Lukaszczyk works closely with the United Nations (UN) civil space activities covering the UN Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space (COPUOS) and working closely with the UN Office of Outer Space Affairs (OOSA). Since 2006, Lukaszczyk has served as the Executive Officer for the Space Generation Advisory Council (SGAC) in support of the UN Programme on Space Applications, and is now SGAC Chairperson. In addition, during the period of September 2006 to June 2008, Agnieszka was a researcher at the European Space Policy Institute. Agnieszka is also the Vice President – Europe for World Space Week.

Lukaszczyk holds a Bachelor's of Science in Political Science, from the University of Tennessee and a Masters from the American University School of International Service in International Politics. She also studied at the Université Catholique de Louvain in Brussels, Belgium; the Jagiellonian University in Krakow, Poland and the World Trade Institute in Berne, Switzerland. She gained professional experience at the Political Section of the Polish Embassy in Washington DC, American Electronics Association in Brussels, European Department of the Polish Senate in Warsaw and the Warsaw Business Journal.