

2019 AMOS Dialogue in Maui

Thursday, September 19, 2019
The Wailea Beach Marriott Resort & Spa
Mauna Loa Room

Co-hosted by the Maui Economic Development Board (MEDB) and the Secure World Foundation (SWF)
at the Advanced Maui Optical and Space Surveillance Technologies (AMOS) Conference, Maui, Hawaii

1230 Welcome and Introductions

Leslie Wilkins, President, MEDB
Brian Weeden, Director of Program Planning, SWF

Recap of Previous Dialogues – Victoria Samson, Washington Office Director, SWF

1245 U.S. Perspective on an Open Access Data Repositories

Overview of U.S. government efforts to develop an open access data repository of space situational awareness data

U.S. Department of Commerce

1300 Session 1: Useful Characteristics of SSA Databases and Repositories

Moderated discussion of what characteristics SSA databases and repositories should have to build trust with users, provide useful services, improve SSA data and products, and enhance SSA data sharing.

Moderator – Brian Weeden, SWF

1345 Session 2: Interaction Between Different SSA Database Efforts

Discussion of different government, industry, and academic efforts currently underway to develop SSA databases and repositories and what measures can be taken to improve compatibility and collaboration.

Moderator – Victoria Samson, SWF

1415 Conclusion

Brian Weeden, SWF

1430 Adjourn