

11th May 2010

Carnegie Endowment for International Peace Building,
1779 Massachusetts Ave., NW, Washington, DC

Space Law & Policy 2010 is a high level seminar that will examine the breadth and reach of space regulations on U.S. activities — civil, commercial and governmental.

AGENDA

- 0830 Check in and coffee

- 0845 Welcomes — organizers and sponsors
IISL, IAA, SWF, Arianespace, ESPI

- 0900 KEYNOTE 1 — Richard DalBello, Vice President, Legal and Government Affairs, Intelsat General
[Introduced by Clay Mowry, Arianespace]

- 0930 PANEL 1 — The Commercial Space Legal Perspective
What are the top three biggest legal challenges for US space Industry?

Patricia Cooper, Satellite Industry Association; Dean Manson, Hughes Network Systems; Doug Brandon, TerreStar Networks; Kalpak Gude, Intelsat; Linda Kinney, EchoStar Satellite; John Rukow (Invited), Space Systems/Loral

- 1045 Coffee

- 1100 KEYNOTE 2 — Ambassador Ciro Arévalo, Chair, United Nations Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space [Introduced by Dr. Jean-Michel Contant, IAA]

- 1130 PANEL 2 — International Aspects
How do you view the development of the international legal regime for space and is it sufficient?

Ben Baseley-Walker, Secure World Foundation; Ken Hodgkins, US Department of State; Kai-Uwe Schrogl, European Space Policy Institute; André Farand, ESA

- 1245 Lunch

- 1400 PANEL 3 — United States Government
Space Law in Government Daily Life – Successes and Failures

Scott Pace, George Washington University; Phil Meek, United States Air Force (retired); Margaret Roberts, NASA, Karl Kensinger (Invited), FCC

- 1515 KEYNOTE 3 — Deputy Administrator Lori Garver, NASA
[Introduced by Dr. Ray Williamson, SWF]

- 1545 Wrap up discussion

- 1630 Adjourn

Email tchow@swfound.org to register.

Media Partner:

