

Secure World presents “Asian Space Policy and the United States”
Thursday, July 28, 2011
12:00 PM to 2:00 PM

Choate Room
1779 Massachusetts Ave NW, Washington DC 20036

“Asian Space Policy and the United States” will feature a panel discussing the Beijing workshop, the direction of Asia space, and the role the United States’ policy community can play in shaping that direction. This event will follow up on the May 2011 Secure World Foundation (SWF) - China Academy of Sciences (CAS) International Workshop on Space Policies and Laws held in Beijing. Space policy in the People’s Republic of China will be one of the main topics of discussion. Following the panel discussion, there will be an open Q&A session.

Panelists:

Mr. Ben Baseley-Walker, Secure World Foundation

Ms. Alanna Krolkowski, University of Toronto

Dr. Jeffrey Lewis, East Asia Non-Proliferation Program, Monterey Institute
